Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133). Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

DETAILED ACTION

Priority

1. Receipt is acknowledged of papers submitted under 35 U.S.C. 119(a)-(d), which papers have been placed of record in the file.

Drawings

2. Figure 5 should be designated by a legend such as --Prior Art-- because only that which is old is illustrated. See MPEP § 608.02(g). A proposed drawing correction or corrected drawings are required in reply to the Office action to avoid abandonment of the application. The objection to the drawings will not be held in abeyance.

Specification

3. The incorporation of essential material in the specification by reference to a foreign application or patent, or to a publication is improper. Applicant is required to amend the disclosure to include the material incorporated by reference. The amendment must be accompanied by an affidavit or declaration executed by the applicant, or a practitioner representing the applicant, stating that the amendatory material consists of the same material incorporated by reference in the referencing application. See In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 569, 179 USPQ 157 (CCPA 1973); In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 579, 179 USPQ 163 (CCPA 1973); and In re Hawkins, 486 F.2d 577, 179 USPQ 167 (CCPA 1973).
4. The disclosure is objected to because of the following informalities: On page 6, in line 5, change "bended" to --bent--.

Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Objections

5. Claim 1 objected to because of the following informalities: In line 8, the word "bended" should be changed to --bent--. Appropriate correction is required.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

6. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

7. Claims 1 and 3 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Ogawa et al.

Re claim 1, Ogawa et al. discloses a door frame for a vehicle comprising a frame structure portion including a hollow portion (80, figure 8B) having a hollow cross section extending in longitudinal direction and a flange portion (86) extending from the outer profile of the hollow portion and an outer surface portion (43) engaged with the flange portion to be integrally formed with the frame structure portion, wherein the frame structure portion and the outer surface portion are formed by separate different plate members, and the outer surface portion is bent (at 43d and 43c) and engaged with the frame structure portion to be integrated together.

Art Unit: 3612

Re claim 3, a material of the plate of the outer surface portion is different from a material of the frame structure portion (column 6, lines 40-42, since the outer surface portion can be made from two different materials, it is inherent that the materials of the two sheets can be different).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

8. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

9. Claims 2 and 4 rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Ogawa et al.

Ogawa et al. discloses all the limitations of the claims, as applied above, except for the plate member of the outer surface portion being thicker than the plate member of the frame structure portion

It would have been an obvious matter of design choice to modify the plate member of the outer surface portion to be thicker than the plate member of the frame structure portion, since such a modification would have involved a mere change in the size of a component. A change in size is generally recognized as being within the level of ordinary skill in the art.

Conclusion

10. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. Shimizu, Danneker et al., Davis et al., Jennings, Disson et al., Keeney et al., and Heitmann et al. disclose vehicle door frames.

Art Unit: 3612
